

Homeowner Responsibility Contract

Texas Home Outlet will not cover any service items that the homeowner is at fault for. Examples of these items are as follows:

- The homeowner or anyone besides T.H.O. or a Legacy contractor purposefully or accidentally punctures a hole in the sheetrock
- The homeowner, homeowner's family, or friends produce burn holes in the flooring and/or countertops.
- The electrician doing the hook-ups on the home does not properly secure the ground wire
- Any electrical issue that is related to hook-ups
- Any plumbing issue that is related to hook-ups
- A/C service due to not changing the filters regularly
- Any other items not specifically listed on this form that are not covered under warranty or that are voided because of homeowner interference and/or negligence.
